Junior Trainee	Nominations for Junior Trainee of the Year are invited for all those who are between ST1 – ST3 (or equivalent) inclusively at the time of local awards. They may work in an NHS organisation, a provider of NHS commissioned care or an education partner. The trainee should fulfil the following criteria: 1) Demonstrates excellence in the fulfilment of their work in paediatrics 2) Demonstrates exemplary team working and support to peers 3 Demonstrates excellence in their interaction with patients and their families 4) Embodies the values of the RCPCH
Senior Trainee	Nominations for Senior Trainee of the Year are invited for all those who are between ST4 – ST8 (or equivalent) inclusively at the time of local awards. They may work in an NHS organisation, a provider of NHS commissioned care or an education partner. The trainee should fulfil the following criteria: 1) Demonstrates excellence in the fulfilment of their work in Paediatrics 2 Demonstrates exemplary team working and support to peers 3) Demonstrates excellence in their interaction with patients and their families 4) Embodies the values of the RCPCH
Educational Supervisor	Nominations for Educational Supervisor of the Year are invited for all Educational Supervisors within your Deanery/LETB. They may work in an NHS organisation, a provider of NHS commissioned care or an education partner. The supervisor should fulfil the following criteria: 1) Demonstrates excellence in the education of Paediatric trainees 2) Demonstrates exemplary personal support to trainees 3) Demonstrates innovation to teaching and education 4) Embodies the values of the RCPCH
Training Unit	Nominations for Training Unit of the Year are invited for all units who host paediatric trainees within your Deanery/LETB. They may be an NHS organisation, a provider of NHS commissioned care or an education partner. The unit should fulfil the following criteria: 1) Demonstrates excellence in the education and training of paediatric trainees 2) Hosts an environment of exemplary support to trainees 3) Brings innovation to teaching and education 4) Embodies the values of the RCPCH
Nurse	Nominations for Allied Contribution to Paediatrics are invited for all nurses working within paediatrics/child health. This includes all bands of nurse and advanced nurse practitioner. They may work in an NHS organisation, a provider of NHS commissioned care or an education partner. The trainee should fulfil the following criteria: 1) Demonstrates excellence in the fulfilment of their work in paediatrics 2) Demonstrates exemplary team working and support to peers 3 Demonstrates excellence in their interaction with patients and their families 4) Embodies the values of the RCPCH
Allied Contribution to Paediatrics	Nominations for Allied Contribution to Paediatrics are invited for all non-doctors and non-nurses working within paediatrics/child health. This includes psychologists, dieticians, pharmacists, and all other MDT members. They may work in an NHS organisation, a provider of NHS commissioned care or an education partner. The trainee should fulfil the following criteria: 1) Demonstrates excellence in the fulfilment of their work in paediatrics 2) Demonstrates exemplary team working and support to peers 3 Demonstrates excellence in their interaction with patients and their families 4) Embodies the values of the RCPCH